Giants' Record Run of 21 Victories Gives Fans Pennant Hopes

The Pitchers Whose Names Will Go in the Hall of Fame for Breaking Grays' Mark Set in 1884 Are Schupp and Perritt.

By Bozeman Bu'ger.

THE Giants may not win a pennant, but to-day they are world's champions. If they be as fortunate as their predecessors they will be champions for fully thirty years.

They have won twenty-one games in succession, thereby surpassing the record of twenty, held by the old Providence Grays since 1884.

It is possible and likely for them to lift this number to heights which no other club may hope to reach for years to come.

In the hour of the fans there now glows an ember of hope that the Giants may yet win the pennant. It is not a sensible hope, but it is a hope just the same.

The pitchers whose names will go in the Hall of Fame as having pushed the record past the historic mark are Schupp and "Poli" Perritt.

In the final test, which is a real test of nerve and ability, Schupp allowed just two hits, as against three made off Meadows, his respected opponent. In Perritt's case it was a Waterloo.

In the tension which held the New York and St. Louis clubs in nerve-racking grip for many innings the Cardinals finally snapped and a wild throw by Shortstop Bohne gave the Giants the one run that made it possible for the record to be tied and then broken.

When you are old and the youngsters begin asking questions about this game—just as we were asking Arthur Irwin about the Providence record last night—remember that the players who took part in it and thereby became baseball immortals were Bill Hargis, Ferdinand Schupp, William Perritt, Walter Hoge, Charlie Herzog, Arthur Fletcher, Heinie Zimmerman, George Burns, Benny Kauff and Davis Robertson. There were no utility men used, no pitchers got hurt, and no pinch hitters were necessary.

The present winning streak began early in September against Brooklyn, and the teams in the race but one—contributed as follows: Brooklyn, 1; Philadelphia, 4; Cincinnati, 5; Pittsburgh, 4; Chicago, 3; St. Louis, 4. The one club that has not faced the Giants in this remarkable series is Boston. They come here to-morrow, though, and it may be possible for the Braves to join the procession of losers. Only the St. Louis club stands in the way with a game to-day.

Among the old-time ballplayers who witnessed the amazing of the record were Arthur Irwin, a member of the Providence club in 1884; Dasher Troy, Billy York, Billy Quinn and George Gore.

There are fans now so enthusiastic as to believe that the Giants will get the rest of the season without losing a game. They have ten to play—one with St. Louis, five with Boston and four with Brooklyn.

If the Giants should win all these games and the Dodgers and Phillies should lose a majority of theirs they can win the championship.

At present it looks as if the Phillies should win what is the most sensational race ever known in major league baseball.

The Brooklyn Club still leads by one game, but the break of the schedule is against them. Last night the Phillies were favorites in the betting.

"I've Got the Best Ball Club I Ever Had," Says McGraw

After the first game yesterday, when the long standing record had been tied, John McGraw walked toward the bench, and stopped for a moment, looking at the big crowd. He had rounded out his career with something that no other manager had dreamed of for three decades. Several of the veteran newspaper men walked out to congratulate him. Each of these men had been with McGraw in his ups and downs for many years.

"Yes, it makes me feel pretty proud," he said, "to have done a thing like this before getting out of the big show. It gets us even for having had that pennant taken away from us in 1908. No, I don't expect to win the pennant, but—and he looked out at his new team—"I've got something to look back to, anyhow. I've got the best ball club I ever had and they have certainly proved it."

Topping Puzzled by Poor Game He Puts Up in Tourney Opening

Although He Was Playing on His Home Course, Young Millionaire Fails to Finish with Leaders in Qualifying Round at Greenwich.

By William Abbott.

WHY good players suddenly go wrong in tournaments has long been one of the mysteries of golf. It is generally a quick attack of bad golf, anxiety or just plain goat getting, but Henry Topping would like to know the real trouble that prevented him yesterday from finishing with the leaders in the qualifying round of the Greenwich Club tournament.

Here was the case of a cracking fine golfer who goes around the Greenwich course almost every day with Macdonald Smith, his private tutor. The difficult Greenwich course is an open book to the young millionaire and his game during these friendly matches would probably beat any other amateur.

Whatever was the cause Topping completed in his club meet yesterday in a round of 72, which was only to see many of his pet shots go awry. The damage for the first round was eighty-two strokes. The afternoon round was better, and Topping's score was 75, which gave him a total six strokes above the leaders.

While Topping, who is one of the tournament favorites, was doing his in-and-out of the green, the young millionaire was playing a fine round. He was in the lead with a score of 72, which was only to see many of his pet shots go awry. The damage for the first round was eighty-two strokes. The afternoon round was better, and Topping's score was 75, which gave him a total six strokes above the leaders.
